

ALYSSA BROWN

Assistant Mini Instructor

Alyssa Brown has been dancing since the age of six in the Florida Keys, and it has always been a defining part of her life. From a young age, she knew that dance was something she wanted to pursue long term.

She is currently a student at Spotlight Dance Studio and, in addition to performing annually in end-of-year recitals, has had the privilege of performing in the Miami Heat Halftime Show for two consecutive years. As a young dancer, Alyssa has consistently challenged herself by training outside of her comfort zone, which has helped her grow not only as a dancer but also as a more confident and adaptable performer.

What began with a love for Hip Hop has evolved into a diverse training background, including Ballet, Latin Ballroom, Contemporary, Jazz, Tap, and Acro. Alyssa is also a dedicated member of Spotlight's Company Team. She has competed at Fusion National Dance Competition, where she earned a Platinum Award for her solo performance, as well as a High Gold at the Adrenaline Dance Convention and Competition.

A special message from Alyssa:

"As it is my senior year, I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to continue sharing my love and passion for dance. It is truly rewarding to inspire and guide younger dancers by passing on the knowledge and love I have for this incredible art form."
